The SCS COVID-19 Task Force meets each day to assess this ever growing situation. We have reached new decisions as to how we can best respond.

As of Friday, March 13, we will continue to offer classes on campus until further notice.

Our Current Action Steps:

- We continue to implement all CDC guidelines including recommended self-quarantine for those who have travelled or will travel.
- We are prepared to implement Sabre Virtual (remote learning) in the event we are not able to have classes on campus.
- Because Monday, March 16 was already scheduled as a day off for SCS, we will take extra sanitization measures while students are off campus.
- When we return on March 17, external visitors will be limited to those essential for daily operations and instruction. Campus visitors who need to be in the building for legitimate business purposes beyond the confines of the front office will be cleared using a series of questions about their recent health status and travel.
- The home baseball game for tonight will be played as planned at this time. The SCHSL is deliberating a decision about all spring sports across the state. We await their decision.
- We will continue to provide updates as the situation develops. You can find the most recent information and changes on our website here: <https://www.southsidechristian.org/my-scs/scs-response-to-coronavirus/>
